5. MANAGEMENT REPORTS

A. OPERATIONS – Rick

- The weather has been weird, but we are still busy
- Rounds are up
- Still selling passes
- Update from BCC carts and Robo mowers – request for 2 trim mowers and driving range ball picker/mower and replacing fleet carts
- Halfway done with league
- Robo mowers were fantastic – 45 minutes to charge and then back to mowing
 - Mowers and picker will be around $80,000
 - Replacement batteries are around $800 each
- Upcoming events:
 - Dick Anderson – 9 holes on Friday
 - Junior camps next week – 7 weeks total
 - Tuesday – Missoula Junior Tour – tee times

B. SUPERINTENDENT - Andy

- Greens are looking better
- The new forward tees will be able to use in the next couple of weeks
- Burlap has been placed on the edges of the creek
- Robo mowers were a success and fairways look great
- We will still use the current mowers
- We are down a rough mower right now due to a broken axle – Fairway mower is back

- Possibility of a raised flower bed between 4 green and 5 tee where the poplar was that we lost in 2024

C. CADDY SHACK – Rick

- Busy
- Half & Half Twisted are gone and about 20 cases of Original Twisted are remaining
- Fully staffed
- Liv is the newest lead

D. FINANCIAL - Holly
